Chapter 1

I woke to the sun in my eyes and Birdeye prodding my side, I yawned and got up.
"Your on hunting patrol now!" She hissed, I knew she was following orders as deputy. I got up, cleaned my fur and padded out to Thislestar flicking her tail angrily.
"you lazy Tom," she hissed, I put my head down apologetically. We padded out of camp and into the forest, I saw a crow to my right so I stalked it. I hid in a bush, I pounced and killed the crow instantly before it could call a warning. I buried it when I saw something slithering towards Thislestar stalking not far away, I quickly pounced on the snake and ripped it in half. Thislestar killed the mouse and saw the snake in my jaws, she nodded her hazel eyes burning my soul.
"Good Shatteredfang now why are you so close to my stalking spot?" She asked.
"This snake was coming towards you Thislestar and your my leader, I protect you with my life," I said.
"I am grateful, I should have made you deputy instead of Birdeye, the old cat can't even catch a Vole right," Thislestar said, as she said it we heard a vole screech not far off and padded to see it was Birdeyes catch that made all the noise.
"Good going Birdeye you scared off all the prey!" I hissed, she flicked her tail angrily but got a scratch on her muzzle from Thislestar in return.
"He is right Birdeye your lucky I haven't killed you yet, that's the tenth time this week we go hungry," Thislestar said her voice almost a hiss, Birdeye ran back to camp with her prey. I grabbed my prey and padded back, Thislestar did the same. The clan didn't look surprised, I put my fresh kill on the pile.
"Let me guess Birdeye scared off all the prey again?" Scarletclaw said.
"Yup, for real I can't wait until she looses her teeth," I said annoyed there was only a vole, a mouse, a crow and a pigeon on the fresh kill pile.
"Yeah and leaf bare is only a moon away," Scarletclaw said flicking her tail, Birdeye padded up to the prey pile to grab the pigeon when Thislestar hissed stopping her on the spot.

"No prey for you, Shatteredfang you and Scarletclaw can share the pigeon, Birdeye what you can eat is that rotten mouse if your hungry," Thislestar said, Birdeye hissed at me and stormed off. I picked up the pigeon and me and Scarletclaw sat down and shared it, we were the best hunters in the clan apart from Hollywing who seemed to fill the fresh kill pile when she was on hunting patrols. But like every cat she needed sleep, Thislestar regretted making Birdeye deputy because ever since she did Birdeye kept Messing up. Thislestar padded over to us once we finished, I cleaned my muzzle.
"You two come with me and bring Birdeye," she said her voice suddenly happy, I knew she was going to do something that involved hurting. I flicked Birdeyes ear and she followed, we got to a clearing surrounded by trees beside the lake.
"What are we doing?" I asked.
"Hold Birdeye in place," Thislestar said.
"But....." I was cut off.
"NOW!" She spat, I grabbed Birdeyes shoulder while Scarletclaw grabbed the other.
"What's going on, why am I being held!?" Birdeye said her voice almost panicked.
"Bring her out into the water," Thislestar said, we dragged Birdeye further into the water keeping her standing.
"Shut up!" I hissed through a mouth full of her shoulder, Thislestar stood in front of us water dripping from her pelt.
"Birdeye since your old and weak, I have decided to choose a new deputy, old deputy's die, now since you scare off all the prey, you leave us hungry and leaf bare is a moon away, do you think my clan will be strong if it is hungry!" Thislestar spat.
"N-no," Birdeye said, Thislestars paw slashed over Birdeyes neck slitting her throat.
"Exactly now drop her and let her drown and run out of air she can barely move since she is loosing blood," Thislestar said, me and Scarletclaw dropped Birdeye in the water. We padded out of the water cleaning our fur and padding back to camp, Thislestar jumped onto high rock and called a meeting.
"All cats old enough to kill prey gather around to hear my words," she called, the clan gathered.
"What do you think she is gunna do?" Scarletclaw whispered.

"Probably pick a new deputy," I said before looking back at Thislestar.
"I must pick a new deputy, this deputy will be Shatteredfang, he has proven himself over and over again ever since his mother died and he became an apprentice, even though I hated his mother, he is a true warrior," Thislestar said, I nodded and the clan cheered, they soon went to their dens while I went to mine and curled up next to Scarletclaw and fell asleep.

Chapter 2

I woke the next morning to a white camp, padded out and my paws went cold. I knew leaf bare had come early and there was no fresh kill pile. I hissed in frustration and went back into the Warriors den, I knew I had to gather a hunting patrol.
"Hollywing, Scarletclaw, Swiftlight come with me we need to hunt," I said waking them up, we went into the snow covered forest. I found a hole that was used my mice, I dug down and found a family of them. I quickly killed them all and sat them on the snow counting six mice total, I than caught a squirrel and took them back to camp. In total all of us had caught; 15 mice, 4 squirrels, 2 pigeons and 5 voles. This filled the fresh kill pile and Thislestar was proud of our work, this made me proud to be deputy. I took two mice to the elders den, what I saw made me drop them. Bumbleleap was laying motionless on his side, I quickly put the mice aside. I dragged his body out and the clan looked on in shock, I put his body in the middle of camp.
"He was a brave warrior and served this clan well when he was a warrior, he will be remembered," Thislestar said her voice sad. It was the first time I had seen her almost cry, I sat beside Bumbleleaps body to grieve the dead elder.
"Leaf bare has not been kind to him," Scarletclaw said her gaze distant, I looked where she was looking and saw his ghost. I also saw my mothers soul, she gave me a nod and I nodded back. They dissapeared and I knew they were in starclan, I looked back at Bumbleleaps body. Soon we buried him and let his body rest, Thislestar had been Bumbleleaps sister. I knew she grieved for him greatly, she had no family anymore just like me. I went to my nest to think, soon I fell asleep.

Chapter 3

Waterwish woke me the next morning, I found it odd to find the elder up and about. I looked at her with a confused expression, she looked at me once more and bekond me to follow. We padded out into the frozen forest, she turned to me and sat, I did the same.
"Why are we out here?" I asked.
"I was padding beside the lake and found something strange," Waterwish said, we went through a bush and looked at the lake. We saw Starclan cats dancing around on the frozen lake, I looked on in amazement when a shadow on the other side of the lake looked at me. The starclan cats looked at the shadow then to us, the shadow stepped onto the lake and got halfway when the starclan cats stood in a battle line. Me and Waterwish looked on in confusion, the starclan cats didn't move only they kept looking at the shadow as it tried to get around them. The shadow was jet black with green eyes, the shadow also had silver stripes on its back. The shadow reminded me of a cat only it appeared bigger and angrier than a normal cat, it seemed to be talking to the starclan cats. I could only make out fractions of it though, from its voice seemed to be that of a she-cat.
"Why do you not let me..... Why can I not go near them they should know..... I will go now," the shadow said before running of into the dark. The starclan cats turned to us, it was a white tabby that stepped forward.
"That shadow was a real cat, her name is Hollywhisp, she has the ability to appear as a shadow so she blends in during fights, she is apart of a prophecy that your clan is apart of, she has a kind heart but we never let her join in the dance because she could fall through the ice, we have to stop her from falling through or the prophecy shall not go through, Shatteredfang, Waterwish go back to camp but do not tell any cat of this or the clan shall try to destroy the frozen waters on which we dance," he said, we nodded and went back to camp. I went to my nest to think about what I saw.

Chapter 4

Scarlet claw woke me from my sleep, she looked at me her eyes furious.
"Why are you sleeping in you lazy Tom, Thislestar wants to see you in her den now!" She hissed, I flinched at her words and padded into Thislestars den.
"You wish to see me," I said.
"Of course now sit," she said, I sat down.
"Why is it you wish to see me?" I asked.
"I spotted a jet black cat with silver stripes and green eyes padding in our territory, she wishes to meet you by the lake as soon as you can, in other words now," Thislestar said, I got up and padded down to the lake. A voice behind me made me jump, she appeared out of the shadows.
"I have been waiting for you, it took you a while but you made it," she said.
"Sorry I am late, I fell asleep after the starclan cats sent us back to camp," I said, she nodded.
"I presume they haven't told you the prophecy either," she said.
"Yeah I find it odd," I said looking at the sky.
"May I ask your leader a question?" She said.
"Uh sure follow me," I said, we went back to camp and Thislestar padded out.
"May I see you in private she-cat," Thislestar said, she nodded.
"Good luck and be careful she gets angry easy," I said, she nodded and padded into Thislestars den. Later she emerged and Thislestar stood on high rock, I knew she was going to call a clan meeting. HollyWhisp sat down beside me, I looked at Thislestar once again.
"All cats old enough to catch their own prey gather around to hear my words, we have a new cat joining our clan, her name is HollyWhisp, she says she was a born clan cat but her clan exiled her for what she says isn't true, murder, we will welcome her with respect or I give her permission to hurt any cat with none," Thislestar said, I looked at her with confusion.
"Did you kill a cat?" I asked.
"No but the deputy blamed me for murder," she said.

"Clan dismissed," Thislestar said flicking her tail.
"So HollyWhisp want to come hunting with me?" I asked.
"Sure are any other cats coming?" HollyWhisp asked.
"Sure we can take Swiftflight and Fireberry," I said, I gathered the other sand we went into the forest. We found good areas to hunt in the snow filled forest, all I managed to find was a few skinny mice and a skinny squirrel. I took my catch back to camp and the others arrived after me, in total we managed to catch; 6 skinny mice, 2 skinny squirrels, and 1 skinny vole. I looked at our catch with a worried expression, HollyWhisp padded up behind me.
"I am sorry we couldn't catch more," she said her voice sad.
"It's not your fault it's life during leaf bare, the worst part is we had an elder die a few days ago, his name was Bumbleleap, he was Thislestars brother," I said.
"So that's why she is acting strange," HollyWhisp said, I nodded and went into my den. Scarletclaw came in her eyes blazing, I looked up confused.
"So much for we were going hunting together, so much for there being an us, so much for your promises," Scarletclaw spat, I flinched as I remembered how I promised her we would go hunting together.
"I got caught up....." I said but was cut off.
"You got caught up in what, loving the new she-cat, getting caught up in her eyes!" Scarletclaw spat again.
"Look I am sorry and if you can't ever see that then I guess we are over!" I spat, I flinched at my own words. Scarletclaw looked at me, her face that of shock.
"Fine, I hope you enjoy her," she said before running out of camp, I looked at my nest when HollyWhisp came in.
"What was that about?" She asked.
"She accused me of loving you, I do but I mean she was my mate but I think I may have messed up and said we were over," I sighed.
"It's going to be ok," she purred softly, she leaned against me and I purred softly.

Guys I will be talking in Scarletclaws pov for the rest of this chapter then it will switch back to Shatteredfangs next chapter.

I sat beside the lake, angry at Shatteredfang for what he said. He never broke promises but as soon as HollyWhisp shows up he falls in love with her. I scratched at the dirt and snow under my paws, I hissed in fury and a cat padded up behind me.

"Hey what was that about?" He asked.
"Me and Shatteredfang are no longer mates," I said, he sat beside me.
"That's horrible I knew he was selfish but I never thought he would do this to such a beautiful she-cat," Bluepoppy said, I looked at him and leaned against him.
"Thanks Bluepoppy," I said purring, we entwined tails and sat looking at the froze lake.

Chapter 5

Back to Shatteredfangs pov.

I woke to a snow filled day, a blizzard had struck and most cats were in the dens. Beside me HollyWhisp was shivering, I curled around her to keep her warm and she started to purr.
"Morning sleepy head," I purred, she yawned and looked at me.
"Morning, awwwww I wanted to go hunting today but I guess all the prey will be in their homes," she said sitting up.
"Yeah plus it's freezing and this blizzard doesn't seem to want to stop," I said, I got up and ran outside to get some fresh kill. I grabbed a few mice a voles to feed everyone, I padded back to the Warriors den and dropped most of it off. I then went to Thislestars den, I dropped off two mice for her. I then padded to the elders den to drop off the rest of the rest of it, I got there and I saw her laying there. The smell of blood hit me like a wave of water, i looked closer and saw someone had murdered her. I sat back in shock as I smelled a strange scent, I looked into the shadows and saw a strange deep grey cat with very odd red eyes. I twitched my ear only then did they know I could see them, they hesitated before trying to escape. I stood in the entrance, HollyWhisp came up behind me.
"It doesn't take this long to....." She said but stopped when she saw the cat, she hissed at the cat.
"Why did you kill our elder?" I asked, the cat hesitated before replying.
"I was sent to do it by the dark forest they said if I didn't they would harm my family," she said he voice almost a sob, I felt pity for this cat.
"What's your name?" HollyWhisp asked.
"My name is dreamer and I have to go now please don't send other cats after me," dreamer said.
"If you go now your trackers will be covvered by snow," I said, she ran out. I went to follow her but I got to the middle of camp when I got stuck in the snow, I tried to yowl for help but the snow stopped me and I lay there stuck inte freezing snow. HollyWhisp noticed when the snow started to clear off because she came over, I sneezed and cough. She took me to the med cats den, Foxtrot came over and started to work on me.

"How did you get stuck?" Foxtrot asked.
"W-well I went to give Waterwish a mouse but when I got there she had been murdered by a strange cat, the strange cat pushed past me and well I got stuck in the snow," I said half telling the truth.
"Oh dear she was the best elder any cat could ask for," Foxtrot said his eyes filled with sadness, I knew he used to love Waterwish but he had been a med cat and if he had been mates with her he would have broken the code. HollyWhisp sat there her face worried, Scarletclaw padded in her face of shock but as soon as she saw HollyWhisp curled around me trying to keep me warm her temper went snap. She hissed and ran out, I seemed to have gotten her angry.

Sorry for the short chapter guys it's just I kinda need ideas for my story and I will add the twist when I feel it's right or my book will be as short as well a short book.

Chapter 6

I woke the next morning to a still frozen camp, the fresh kill pile was no more and we were starving. If the snow kept up we would all starve, I knew I had to go hunting even if it killed me. I got up and padded out into the snow, soon I found my way out of camp. I went deeper into the blizzard and soon found a mouse hole, I dug down and grabbed the mice from within. I kept them with me and took them with me to the next mouse hole, I dug it out and found more mice. I took them back to camp, I put a mouse at each cat even Thislestar and it left me with one. I ate it quickly and knew we would not survive on this, Thislestar was loosing lives and fast. She was down to 3 lives, she lost 6 because of the blizzard. The blizzard soon stopped and we all went out of the den, Foxtrot came out of Thislestars den. His eyes sad as he jumped up onto high rock, I knew he had terrible news.
"Sadly Thislestar is now down to her last life, we must hunt and quick while I try to get her back up to health quickly!" He yowled heading back into Thislestars den, I ordered a few patrols for hunting and a few for border. Me and HollyWhisp went on a hunting patrol with Swiftflight, Scourgewhisker, Petalvenom, and Oakpelt. All the others went on border patrol, i sighed as I found a few holes but one I didn't know wasn't a mouse hole I dug up. Underneath we I found a very hungry fox, I hissed as it lunged for me. I dodged but narrowly, I lunged at it and I got it's neck in my grip. Firepoppy soon arrived and he helped me, the fox had a hold of him moments later. I tried to help him but when I got the fox to let go he was already dead, the fox bolted and Scarletclaw arrived her claws out. As soon as she saw Firepoppy dead she froze in place, she ran up to his body.
"No no you can't go what about our kits, our kits will be born in new leaf why why!" She yowled, I gave her a sharp look.
"How long have you been expecting his kits?" I asked, she looked up.
"A moon before we stopped being mates," she said her voice sad, this made me snap.
"Your saying you were expecting his kits, you cheated on me!" I spat, she looked up at me again.

"I am so sorry Shatteredfang," she burst into even more tears.
"If I were leader you would be exiled!" I spat, she lay down crying harder.
"It's not my fault it was an accident!" I yowled crying.
"Oh yeah an accident is when I you miss some prey, trip over but expecting another toms kits has crossed the line!" I spat.
"Shatteredfang please....." She said but I cut her off.
"You are a traitor to my life, I am glad we are no longer mates you traitor!" I spat running back to camp with my kill but before I ran off she said.
"Please forgive me," she cried.
"I am glad he is dead," I spat running off, the look on her face was that of shock. I put the fresh kill on the fresh kill pile and went straight to my den, HollyWhisp lay beside me trying to comfort me. I fell asleep later on, she too fell asleep.

Chapter 7

It had been a few moons and leaf bare had ended, it was green leaf and I enjoyed the warm breeze. HollyWhisp was expecting my kits and Thislestar had died, I was now Shatteredstar. I looked over my clan with interest, I had long forgotten the prophecy. I had started hurting innocent cats and I had killed Scarletclaw 5 moons after she had her kits, I said she had died from rouges and I had been lucky no cat noticed my scratches. HollyWhisp had grown weary of me and I knew she was learning, I could never kill my mate no matter what even if she tried to kill me. I sighed as she padded in, she sat next to me purring.
"Deathkit and Badgerkit are old enough to become apprentices my love," she purred, I nodded and jumped onto high rock.
"All cats old enough to catch their own prey gather around to hear my words, we have two new apprentices with us today, Deathkit from this moment on until you have earned your warrior name you shall be known as Deathpaw, Hollywing will be your mentor, Badgerkit from this moment on until you have earned your warrior name you shall be known as Badgerpaw, your mentor shall be Petalvenom," I said, the clan cheered and I jumped down.
"I can't wait until our kits are born," HollyWhisp said purring.
"Me either, Swiftflight, Oakpelt come now!" I yowled, they followed me out of camp. We arrived at the training hollow, they gave me confused glanses.
"Why are we here?" Oakpelt asked.
"Who ever wins the battle will be deputy, the first cat to kill the other will be named deputy," I said, the broke into a fight and soon Oakpelt had taken Swiftflights life, I smirked and killed him.
"Y-you said I c-could be deputy," he choked.
"Never trust me didn't you learn anything," I smirked as his soul faded.

Next chapter is the chapter where the prophecy will come true.

Chapter 8

I was padding through the forest when a shadow of black and silver tackled me, I looked up into my mates green eyes. They were filled with hatred and anger mine filled with the thirst for blood and death but my face showed differently, I didn't move suddenly remembering the prophecy. I knew she was the cat to kill me so I didn't struggle I only lay there, she was starting to cry.
"My love I am sorry but starclan has told me to do this before you kill the clan, when our kits are born I will not tell them of your murderous deeds, if you visit them in dreams you will deal with me my love, I don't want to kill you but starclan says I must, I will miss the old you Shatteredstar my love," she almost sobbed, her paw pressed onto my throat. She slit it instantly, I choked for air but my eyes closed and I woke in the dark forest. A voice behind me made shivers run down my spine, she was the cat that had turned me onto this path. I turned to see the one cat I hate, her Amber eyes burning into me.
"Hello Mapleshade," I hissed.
"A www you missed me I can't believe you never noticed that you didn't have nine lives you stupid cat," she hissed.
"Because of you I will never see my mate and kits again," I spat.
"THATS HOW I FELT WHEN APPLEDUSK SAID I KILLED THE KITS WHEN I TRIED TO RETURN OUR KITS TO HIM BECAUSE MY CLAN KICKED ME OUT I KILLED TO FREE MY KITS SOULS YOU NOW KNOW HOW I FEEL!" Mapleshade yowled, I jumped and she was angry.
